WELLPARK BREWERY: THE HOME OF BREWING IDEAS

---

We've been brewing Scotland's favourite pint at Wellpark since 1885.... now we're helping creative business minds make their only little slice of history with a thoroughly 21st Century approach to meetings.

WELCOME TO THE INNOVATION SUITE

Our meeting space, unlike any other in Scotland, is situated in the heart of the Wellpark Brewery in Glasgow's iconic East End, just 10 min walk from the City Centre.

In addition to providing a bright and welcoming space to share ideas, we can make sure your teams stay alert and on the ball with a range of break out spaces and interactive activities.

Take a T break from your meeting and join a tour of the legendary Wellpark Brewery, or have a meeting with a twist and end your day with a celebratory get together at Tennent's Training Academy... Glasgow's no.1 visitor attraction on Trip Advisor.

Choose from a variety of cooking classes, cocktail making or wine and whisky tastings to tailor your meeting for a personalised experience. Whatever your needs, we can provide a unique and exciting package for your team that keeps you head and shoulders above your less enlightened competitors.

TAKE A T BREAK

The Tennent's family began brewing at the site back in 1556 and the brewery has been an important part of the Glasgow landscape ever since. Tours of Wellpark Brewery entice visitors from as far afield as Canada, USA and Australia.

The guided tour is a 90 minute journey through 500 years of history; an opportunity to learning about the Tennent family, to see how every pint is brewed, and a chance to relive some of Tennent's iconic advertising. It's also a chance to learn about the world famous Lager Lovelies and gain some exclusive insight to the production site of Europe's highest multi-level brewery.

With a whopping £1.5m investment in the Tennent's Visitor Centre, we have now become one of the top tourist destinations in Glasgow! Following completion of the brewery renovations, local street artist SMUG was commissioned to create unique works of art on the exterior and The Tennent's Tours were soon awarded The Certificate of Excellence from TripAdvisor.

The certificate is presented to organisations who have received outstanding reviews on their site and only the top 10% of businesses receive the prestigious award...we can't wait to see what you think!

FROM JUST £5 PER PERSON!

MEETINGS WITH A TWIST

If you are looking to add some sparkle to your event, we have a range of activities at the Tennent's Training Academy to brighten up even the longest meeting.

With a £1 million state of the art training facility housed within the brewery, a range of team building and interactive options are available to complete your day.

From fun cooking experiences to cocktail, wine or beer master classes, we've got enthusiastic experts on hand to make sure your guests leave with a smile on their face and a story to tell.

Whether you are looking to build client relationships, inspire your colleagues or simply want to try something new to stay fresh and relevant, Tennent's Training Academy is on hand to make it happen.

Tennent's Training Academy experiences start from £18 per person and will be hosted by industry leaders, from expert mixologists to renowned chef Joe Queen, one of Scotland's great food ambassadors.

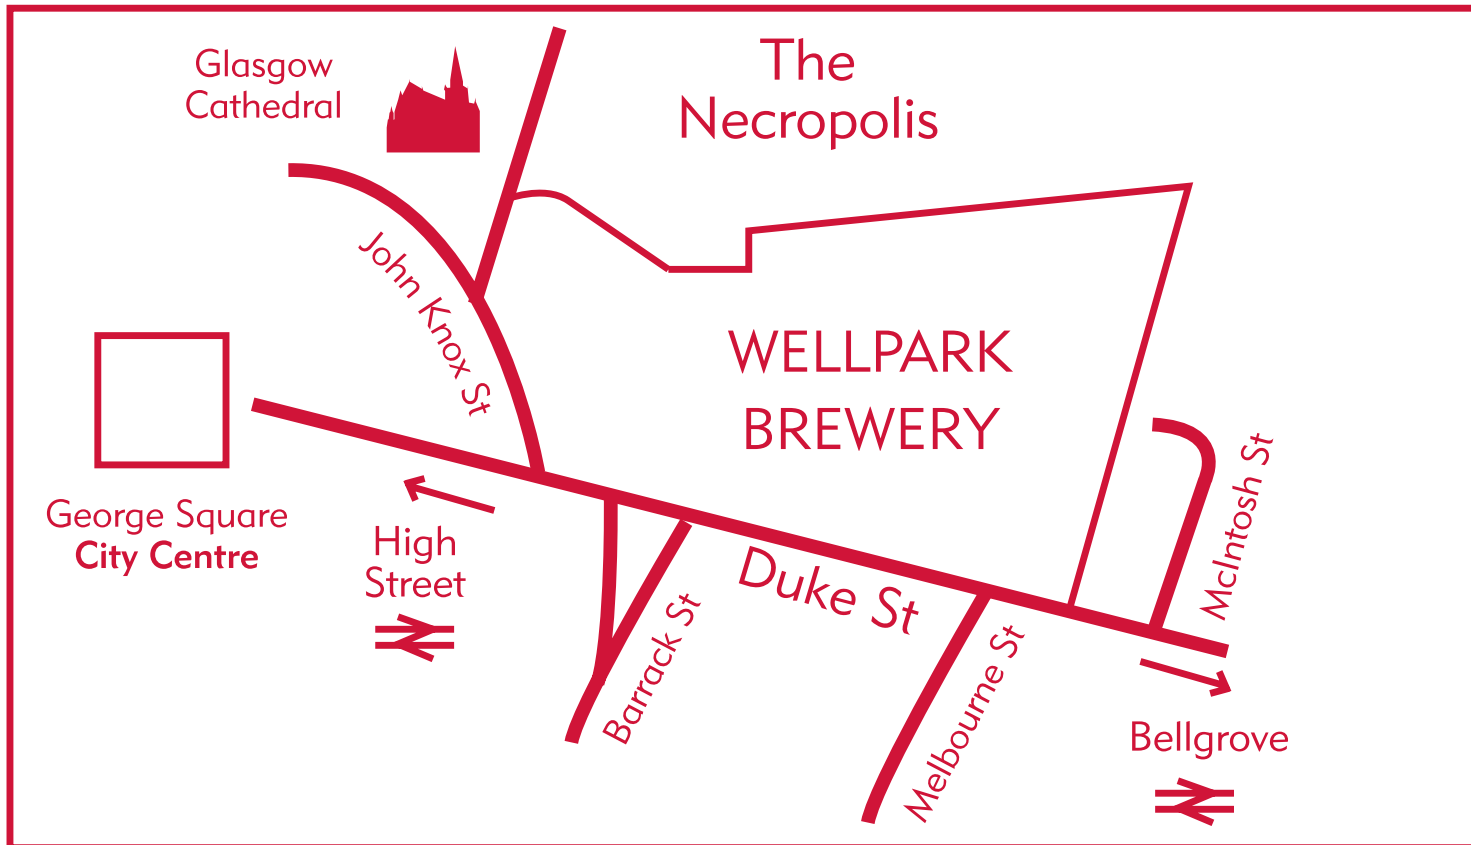

With 500 years of brewing history behind us, you can trust us to help you get the right blend.
